DUNMORE DOINGS BRIEFLY RECORDED

Borough Council Met and Disposed of Routine Business.

BANQUET IN ODD FELLOWS' HALL

Conducted by Dunmore Lodge, No. 167, Knights of Pythias -- Attended by a Large Number of Persons. Funeral of Mary L. Healey from Her Late Residence on Tripp Street Requiem Mass Sung at St. Mary's Church.

At last night's stated meeting of the borough council a considerable amount of routine business was considered. The members present were Messrs, Ward, McAilister, McCullogh, Medway, Harper and Weber. The chief of the fire department reported that some of the fire hydrants are in bad shape, especially the one at the corner of Blakely and Brook streets. On motion of Mr. Medway it was decided to allow the chief of the fire department to look

Clerk Gilligan read a communication received from the Scranton Rallway company in reference to the matter of paying one fare to Dunmore cemetery. Messrs, McAllister and Medway were appointed a committee to confer with the railway company officials about the matter. The chief of police reported one arrest during the month of January. The report of the street commissioner was read and filed. A resolution was passed directing the Scranton Railway company to move its tracks from the side to the centre of Electric avenue as soon as possible. As the insurance on the borough building expires March 8, the insurance committee was on motion of Mr. Medway instructed to have the insurance re-

The time sheets of the street commissioner and chief of police were approved. It was reported that the borough treasurer had received Dunmore's share of the foreign insurance tax from the state authorities. It amounts to $57.11. The council adjourned to meet next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Observance of St. David's Day In Tabernacle Congregational Church.

THERE WAS A LARGE ATTONDANCE

Atter the Banquet Was Served, at Excellent Programme Was Rendered, Which Consisted of Many Musical Numbers and Addresses by Walter S. Bevan and Prot. James R. Hughes -- Exciting Experience of William N. Chase--Other Items.

The anniversary of St. David's day was fittingly observed at the Tabernacle Congregational church last evening. At 6 o'clock the doors of the lecture room were thrown open to the public, and five lengthy tables loaded with the delicacies of the season were revealed to a hungry throng. The room was tastefully decorated with the national colors and the tables were prettily arranged with parlor lamps and numerous other decorations. The bill prepared and served in an excellent manner. Up to eight o'clock several opportunity afforded to partake of the real, and throughout the evening the following ladies presided at the different tables and in the kitchen:

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

Shortly after eight o'clock the enter tainment was commenced in the main audience room, and before 8:30 o'clock all the seats were occupied and many were standing. The church was crowded, and many persons were unable to gain admission. Rev. D. J. Jones, the pastor, presided, and made an introductory address, in which he spoke of St. David, the patron saint, and of the anniversary and observance by the Welsh people. Piano selections were given by Professor Iorwerth Prosser, a comparatively new artist here, and he was accorded a warm reception. Mrs. F. Jones sung an alto solo, and vation of the Welsh Language." He evidenced much thought and preparation, and his remarks were timely and spirited. Mrs. Edith Richards-Heckel sang two selections and Charles Benett recited in an amusing way.

The address of the evening was delivered by Prof. James R. Hughes, principal of No. 14 school, and his remarks were based upon St. David. "St. David," the speaker said, "was an esteemed preacher, a religious guide, a model to teachers and a great de-fender of Wales." He was honored because of his manhood, his intellectual will find here today and during the balance of the and religious qualities. Prof. Hughes' remarks were heartily appreciated and received a deserved recognition, Folfowing the speaker, a solo was given by Miss Maggie Jones, and Bessie Sloat recited, accompanied by Miss Margaret Gibbs on the piano, Solos were also rendered by Mrs. Frank Brundage, Mr. John T.
